The telegraphic news from Washington yesterday states that the most important incident of the day at the state department was the long expected cablegram from United States Minister Woodford at Madrid, transmitting the answer of the Spanish government to his representations in the interest of peace in Cuba. It was hinted among other things by Minister Woodford in his communication that ex-Captain-General Weyler would not leave Cuba and present himself to his government until he had secured the correct thing in the way of furnishing goods. The captain-general is not very popular in Spain at best and it is the opinion of his friends that if he would get the very latest thing out in the way of a necktie made to order from "The Trinity," the goods furnishing goods house of Phoenix, it would serve to reinstate him in the good graces of the Spanish government. These ties are reversible and made to order, with more than five hundred patterns to select from. The shoes at The Trinity are perfect in make and in all shades and colors; made to fit the feet, still very fashionable.

A. Hearst, Jr., a young man of 24, died at the Commercial yesterday after a residence in the city of two weeks. The remains were prepared for shipment by Randal & Davis and will be taken back home to Peoria, Ill., accompanied by Mrs. Esther Hearst, the mother of the deceased.

C. R. Fluke of Lewiston, Pa., died in Phoenix yesterday morning of neuralgia of the heart. He had arrived in the city only the day before, intending to remain during the winter. The remains were sent east last night by the Phoenix Undertaking company. The deceased was 47 years old.

The following self explanatory communication was left at The Republican office last night: "Henry Harlow Akers yelled, 'I am yours for McKinley' for the first time at 9:35 p. m., October 28, A. D., 1897. The mother and Henry Harlow are doing well. He is a twelve pounder, a regular 'cracker-jack'."

The foundation for the new dining room at the insane asylum has been finished. The dimensions are 80x40. At one end of the dining room a stage for use during entertainments will occupy one end of the hall. Two other rooms, one a serving room and the other a pantry, will complete the belongings of the building, which will be of brick, one story, and of pleasing exterior.

Governor McCord, accompanied by Chancellor Hughes of the university, will leave tomorrow for Pasadena, Cal., to meet Professor M. M. Mr. J. George Hinzinger of Tucson is in the city. Mr. Hinzinger is the author of that interesting and effective story of the resources of Pima county, called, "Treasure Land." He has been in correspondence with business men of Phoenix regarding a work of the same kind descriptive of Phoenix and Maricopa county. He will probably meet with the chamber of commerce today, when a decision will be reached regarding the matter.

A reception and banquet was given Governor and Mrs. McCord at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Stroud at 631 North Center street last Wednesday night. Other guests beside the governor and his wife were Attorney-General and Mrs. Frazier, Adjutant-General and Mrs. R. Allyn Lewis, Bishop and Mrs. Kendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Miller, Mrs. and Miss Jones, Miss Lena Purdy, Mr. Eldredge Jordan and Captain J. W. Crenshaw.

Registration for the special election of councilman from the Third ward began yesterday and will close on November 1. There is a prevalent and wrong impression regarding this registration. It is believed to be a supplemental affair, for the benefit of those who were not qualified voters last spring, or who from one cause or another failed to register. It is intended for all voters of the Third ward. Each registration belongs only to the one election which follows it and those who neglect to appear at this special registration cannot vote at the coming special election.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Ike Hauser, the St. Louis commercial evangelist, is in the city again. Chairman E. O. Stratton of the livestock sanitary commission, left last night for Tucson.

Dr. George W. Vickers, territorial auditor, returned yesterday morning from a visit to Tucson.

Dr. R. L. Rosson, who has been in southern California for several months, returned to Phoenix yesterday morning. His family will remain in California.

Robert Groom, a pioneer of Yavapai county, who saw the seed of a town sown on the ground occupied by Prescott and watched it sprout into a mining camp, boom into a town and mature into a municipality, is in town. It is said of him that when he came to this country the Grand canyon was a mere irrigating ditch. His name has been permanently attached to Arizona by the christening of Groom creek.

CONVICTION OF WARD.

The Jury Believed, Though, That His Offense Was Without Intent.

The case of C. D. Ward, proprietor of the "College Place" lodging house, charged with violating the "400-yard limit" law, was tried before a jury in Justice Johnstone's court yesterday. A verdict of guilty was brought in after a deliberation of two hours and Ward was recommended to the consideration of the court. Sentence will be passed this morning. The lightest fine is $50. Ward was accused of renting a room to a woman of ill repute. It was shown that though her reputation was notorious, Ward had heard of it, so that though he had violated the law he had done it without intent, hence the favorable recommendation of the jury. Ward will appeal the case.

He called at The Republican office last night to state that the first intimation he had had of the woman's character was when the warrant for his arrest was served on him. He at once gave her notice to quit. He further states that he lives in the same house with his wife and children and he would therefore certainly not harbor disreputable persons.

AN ACCEPTED CHALLENGE.

The High School Boys Will Meet the Star Nine.

Manager Stewart of the Union High school base ball team announced yesterday that he did not have the time to devote arranging matters with the Mexican aggregation, which issued a challenge in Tuesday morning's issue of The Republican, but that he had turned that affair over to his assistant, Sister Lambert, and the junior nine of the high school. Captain Lloyd Dameron of that team announced last night that his team would be ready to play the "Stars" on the afternoon of the 13th of November, or any Saturday following if that date does not suit the "Stars." "Sister" Lambert stated last night that he did not think there would be any "series" of games played between the Juniors and the Stars, as one game would more than satisfy the Stars. He does not think they will make a run, and possibly not a base hit. This looks ominous for the Stars, for "Sister" knows a hawk from a hand saw.

MR. LAKE IN NEW YORK.

The Papers of the Metropolis Note His Presence.

If, as a telegraphic dispatch from New York states, Hon. W. H. Lake of Kingman, Arizona, caused to be inserted in a New York paper an advertisement of himself, lately reproduced in The Republican, he certainly got his money's worth. The ad was copied by pretty nearly all the New York papers, which besides added generous and unpaid for comments.

The Evening Sun said of Mr. Lake: "Lake has announced his own arrival in town. He was the first man up in the hotel this morning and asked the barkeeper for information relative to the Raines law. He thought it was spelled 'rain' law and had something to do with irrigation." "He said that some such law as that is very much needed in Arizona. But for that he expressed an opinion that Arizona is the best place on earth, and just as rich as Klondyke in gold mines."

ANNOUNCEMENT AND ORDER.

Office of the Governor, Phoenix, Arizona, October 28, 1897.

To the People of the Territory of Arizona:

It is my sad duty to announce the death of Hiram C. Truesdale, chief justice of the supreme court of the Territory of Arizona.

After a lingering illness it was the decree of Divine Providence to remove him from life to eternity. He died at Phoenix, Arizona, on the afternoon of the 28th day of October, A. D. 1897, at the hour of half past one o'clock.

His remains will be removed from Phoenix to his former home at Minneapolis, Minnesota, for interment on the evening of October 29, 1897, at 6:30 o'clock, local time.

Out of respect for his memory and as a mark of sympathy, and to show our high appreciation and esteem in which he was held as a judge and as a man, it is hereby ordered that the territorial offices be closed on the afternoon of October 29, A. D. 1897, after the hour of 12 o'clock noon; that flags on the public buildings be displayed at half mast through the day and that that portion of the Arizona National Guard stationed at Phoenix, Arizona, assemble at such time and place as the adjutant-general may direct and escort the remains to the depot of the Santa Fe, Prescott and Phoenix Railway company.

All territorial, county and municipal officers, together with all citizens, are invited to join in the procession and render the last honors to the deceased.
